The UGA Department of Dance and Young Choreographers Series is proud to present, Endure, a Senior Exit and Emerging Choreographers Showcase including senior, junior, sophomore, and freshmen dance majors. As part of the 2021 Spotlight on the Arts Festival, these performances will be held in the New Dance Theatre from November 10th through 12th at 7:30 p.m. each night. A livestream of each program will also be available on Friday and Saturday night.

After months of preparation, dancers take the stage for the presentation of this year's show Endure. Intending to spread their gifts and passions, choreographers had the pleasure of displaying their creativity and knowledge for dance through their choreographic works.

Three senior A.B. degree candidates, Aria Surka, Hadiya Williams, and Lindsey Sewell, will each present a senior choreographic project to display their dance knowledge and artistry. All senior choreographers have had the opportunity of exploring choreographic devices, various movement analyses, and technical experimentation throughout their time at UGA. Ten junior choreographers, Gigi Anderson, Haley Roberson, Katie Hanna, Erin O'Keefe, Ana Mattingly, Madelyn Wolfe, Kendyl Hayes, Haleigh Green, Vivian Munce, and Isabelle Collins and one sophomore choreographer, Abby Schulze, are presenting their choreographic projects through the Young Choreographers' Lab.

This show will present themes based on relationships, personal struggles, and revelations through styles such as contemporary, ballet, jazz, musical theater, lyrical and West African dance.

Ticket prices are $8 for students and seniors, and $12 for general admission and can be purchased at the Tate Student Center and Performing Arts Center box offices, by phone at 706-542-4400, on the PAC website. Tickets may also be purchased at the door with cash, major credit card, or personal check, however, purchasing tickets prior is recommended. Free parking is available in lots adjacent to the UGA Department of Dance after 5:00 p.m., or at the South Campus Parking Deck next to the Georgia Center for Continuing Education for a fee.

*Presented by the University of Georgia Arts Council, Spotlight on the Arts is scheduled for Nov. 1-30 and includes dozens of exhibitions and performances in the visual, literary and performing arts. A complete schedule and information about other events and news on the arts at UGA can be found at <https://arts.uga.edu>.
